

Who am I?

Can you guess my native language – am I English?

Do you think it is important to know
languages?

Why?

5 minute Exercise

1

in a hospital: in what way do you think languages may help?

2

in the school: when do you think you might find it very useful to know another language?

3

in the local government and CAB: what sort of work do you think you can do and how can languages help you?

4

in the government intelligence: this is a very exciting job!! Any ideas why knowing languages might be handy?

5

working for the UK government in another country: who represents our country in other countries in Europe and worldwide? Would knowing languages help?

6

Run Your Own Business: What kind of business can you run?

Examples

1

in a hospital: a doctor or nurse: non-English speaking patient in an emergency, your colleagues...

2

in the school: teaching another language, helping other non-English speaking students in the local government and CAB: giving advice to non-English speaking visitors, working in the social services in the government intelligence: this is a very exciting job!! Working on the state security you have to be able to understand other languages!

3

4

5

working for the UK government in another country: Ambassadors speak native languages of the countries in which they represent the UK

6

Run Your Own Business: Translator or Interpreter.

Run Your Own Business

Translator:

2. Work from home
3. Use the Internet
4. Use various software
5. Work in your own time

either or both

Interpreter:

2. A great variety of work
3. Meeting lots of people
4. Being recognised for your unique skill

Earn Money

How much money do you think I earn?

a) £10 000

b) £20 000

c) £30 000

d) £40 000

e) £50 000

f) £100 000